Annex IV

Administrative and programme budget implications of resolutions and decisions adopted by the Commission at its fifty-seventh session

1. At its fifty-seventh session, the Commission on Human Rights adopted 82 resolutions and 19 decisions.

2. A number of resolutions and decisions relate to mandates that do not involve substantive costs or for which provisions have been made in the programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001.

3. Before taking a decision on those resolutions and decisions involving programme budget implications, in accordance with regulation 13.1 of the United Nations Financial Regulations and Rules and rule 28 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, the Commission was informed through oral statements of the estimated costs relating to implementation of the requests contained in the resolutions and decisions.

4. The resolutions and decisions of the Commission which were subject to oral statements concerned activities of a perennial nature. Provisions have already been included in the programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001 and in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003 for activities of this nature. Hence, no additional appropriations would be required as a result of the adoption of these resolutions and decisions.
